Highlights

Richard McKenna Charter High School has experienced a 46% growth in its online enrollment for the 2005-06 school year. As a result, RMCHS has expanded its course offerings for the 2006-07 school year and is creating additional sections of existing courses.

RMCHS is experiencing more student retention and higher levels of course completion which has contributed to the increase in enrollment.

RMCHS is continuously upgrading and improving its online courses. We are incorporating more multimedia and live interaction between students and teachers as technologies improve and high speed bandwidth becomes more available.

Progress Towards Meeting Goals

2005-06 Goals	Progress
Improve students' math skills and prepare them to be math proficient on the 9 th and 10 th grade ISAT exams.	Students have demonstrated a 15% increase in math scores using prescriptive software.
Improve interactivity between students and teachers in online courses.	Teachers are creating interactive, multimedia presentations using presentation software.
Add three additional online courses to curriculum.	Teachers have been hired and are developing Music Appreciation, Art History, and Speech courses.
Increase course completion rates.	Course completion rates have increased from 58% to 70%.
